One biplane was parked at the POTSDAM-BORNSTEDTER FELD (N 53° 2' 63") airfield on 9 August 1949. Another biplane with open cockpit and cowled cabin behind, which had come from the north landed at the airfield in rainy weather. A lieutenant colonel and a first lieutenant wearing red service color left the plane and boarded passenger car [REDACTED] 25X1B

Comment: Report shows that the POTSDAM-BORNSTEDTER FELD airfield is still not occupied by an air unit but that individual liaison and courier planes occasionally land there. 25X1X biplane of the above type is unknown. The described plane is probably a duplicate of the PO-2, the rear seat of which is cowled. The reported motor vehicle [REDACTED] army unit.
